

3000 MEN WILL BE GIVEN WORK

RAILROAD CONTRACTORS WILL START OPERATIONS ABOUT
MARCH 1.

Coos Bay and Tenino Lines are to be constructed and Army of Laborers will be needed.—In addition the O-W, R. & N. Will Build Connections —Twenty of Work in Sight.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 7.—Employment for more than 3000 men will be provided about March 1 by the operations of a single Portland concern—that of Porter Bros., railroad contractors.

Porter Bros. are arranging to resume work on the Coos Bay line of the Southern Pacific between Acme and Marshfield and on the Tenino cutoff of the Northern Pacific south of Tacoma. Both of these projects, which have been under way for several years, have been idle on account of the winter rains.

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—CASCARETS

Salts, Calomel and Pills Act on Liver and Bowels Like Pepper Act in Nostrils—DANGER!

Get a 10-cent box now.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly or age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets.
One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

HARMLESS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS AND NEUTRALIZING IRRI-TATING ACIDS.

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scald-ing sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and effective no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effective, uric acid drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

Orpheum.

For Sunday's change, "Her Wedding Gown." Biograph. Two reels. Featuring Marshall Nellan and Gertrude Robinson. It was to be a surprise for her little girl when she stood up on her wedding day with faithful Billy. But Aunt Marion in the city believed in broadening out and so May Belle was sent to the dangerous city to be broadened out. A great opportunity appeared in the son of Aunt Mary's most particular friend.

Bill's Board Bill. Kalem. Featuring Ruth Roland and John Brennan.
While Bored Bill is wondering where his next meal is coming from, he finds an expensive suit of clothes and dons them. He boards for two weeks at a swell boarding place and when the landlady discovers he can't pay his board bill, what happens then brings this feature to a rip-roaring climax.
Cambridgehire Race Meet. Kalem.

Pathe's Weekly containing all the news of the week, concludes this interesting program.

Pastime—Saturday Only.

"Officer John Donovan." A Vitaphone in two parts is an absorbing number, featuring Van Dyke Brooks, Leo Delaney and Norma Talmadge.
A little baby picked up on a doorstep grows into a fine young girl and befriends her guardian and benefactor, who is on the police force and who effects the capture of a gang of counterfeiters after a desperate fight in which the wayward son, home at last, receives a wound, which is instrumental in awakening a love between himself and his father's ward.
A delightful photoplay.

"The Real Miss Lovelace." Essan-comedy. An explosion of humor is the reward for seeing this picture. It is a comedy that has many unique situations.

"Pathe Weekly." This issue is an unusually interesting number illustrating all the events of international importance.

Pastime—Sunday-Monday.

Having secured "Deacon Billington's Downfall," a two part Edison comedy feature for Saturday we can assure our patrons of an enjoyable entertainment. Cora Williams and Dan Mason have the leads assisted by an all star cast of fourteen Edison players. Deacon Billington is a pious man. He has been one of the pillars of the church for years. Jealousy and rum are his downfall. A horse race starts the trouble which is added to by his daughter's love affair, his own love affair with the widow divine, and an inquisitive tramp who discovers his secret jug. Lovers of good clean comedy should see this picture.

"A Proposal From Mary," being the sixth and last story of "Who Will Mary Marry," featuring Mary Fuller.
"Mid Kentucky Hills." Vitaphone featuring Edith Story and Ned Finley. To gain his end, the young revenue officer trifles with the affections of a mountain lass. She forgives him and bestows her love upon the man who longs for it. An interesting story of the Kentucky moonshine stills.

Cosy—Sunday.

Woodley and Patterson, two real comedians in a comedy singing and talking act that gets the laughs, will be here Sunday matinee and night.

"A Romance of Sunshine Alley." Bi-oncho. A prize fight offering. Jimmie, the newsboy, loves to scrap so well that he agreed to fight while on parole. The judge who paroled Jimmie attended the fight and bet his money on Jimmie. The end is most amusing. This is a brisk story, with a real prize fight.

"The Portrait of Anita." Two reels. Majestic. Francella Billington and Lamar Johnstone have the leads in this coherent and beautiful little film story—full of color and sentiment. The settings and costumes are picturesque and the offering is very appealing.

"My Wife's Away" and "The Sleepy Head" are two funny comic comedies.

Alta Theater Tonight.

Miss Kathryn Farrar certainly proved to be some violinist in her exhibition last night, together with her brother, Flex Farrar, who has a baritone voice above the average. They present an act that pleases all. This act, together with a strong picture program, furnishes an entertainment of exceptional merit and should not be missed by anyone who can appreciate good, clean amusement.

Tomorrow, Sunday, Whittle and Jarvis in a comedy singing and dancing act with a new program of pictures.

Lucas at Oregon Theater.

The coming of Dr. Alzamon Ira Lucas, a man of many professions and nationalities, to this city, on supposedly the biggest hoodoo day in any year, will be especially noticed by those who believe in "luck" or "fate." Here comes a man who started in life on a salary of $2.50 a week, working for an Italian in a restaurant from 6 a. m. to 12 o'clock midnight without even five minutes "off" any day.
His only bed at this job was the floor and his coat was used as a pillow. It was during his vacation days that he struggled to get an education. Today, after many a battle with every opposing force that nature imparts, the progressive man, he has risen to heights unconquered by his foes who now admire his humanitarian work.
Dr. Lucas does not oppose or fight anything or anybody; his method is to live his teachings and to do his best to create better environment for struggling humanity. "Know Thyself" is the first step toward this end.
He is not coming to Pendleton as an evangelist, nor as an advisor; he is coming to reveal to you the marvels of the conscious and sub-conscious mind of man. He will demonstrate parts of his lecture by walking into your soul, as it were, and telling you the truth about yourself. He never embarrasses anyone and no young lady or gentleman, maid or bachelor, nor a married couple will miss this opportunity of hearing the most advanced teacher in oriental and occidental philosophy in the northwest.

Hawthorne School Notes

Edited by Edna Hamilton.

Note—The East Oregonian has arranged with the Hawthorne school to have weekly notes from that building.
Edna Hamilton, as editor-in-chief with four assistants, will collect the news at the end of each week for the Saturday edition. It is arranged with their teachers that they will get credits in grammar work.

Next parent-teachers' meeting at Hawthorne will be Friday, Feb. 13, at 2:30 p. m. The program will be as follows: Song, by members of the 2nd and 3rd grades; recitation, "Miss Edith Helps Things On," Esther Evans; recitation, "True Heroism," Dencie Hays; recitation, "Our New Sunday Breeches," Alberta Nibler songs, by intermediate grades. After the program the pupils will be dismissed and the regular order of business will be taken up by the club.
Some of the questions to be discussed are: School grounds; arrangement of games; home credits and home ear-dens. This will be the third meeting of the parent-teachers' association of the Hawthorne school. All parents are cordially invited.

While the trees are bare outside the eighth grade has been painting them and the last of the week completed a board for the exhibit in May.
Handball is occupying the attention of the older boys, and the smaller children have a new game each day.
First it is "three deep" followed by "blackman" and the next day a skit of snow makes "fox and geese" the chief game.

In connection with a lesson on taxation in civil government, the eighth B class studied the problems on expenditures of the city. They accounted for the high tax they pay this year by calling to mind the many improvements, among them the new high school, the new water system and the Star street bridge.

The sixth A class is drawing maps of Oregon and studying its mountain systems. In a sixth grade spelling contest yesterday Maude Poston was the winner.

The seven A has been studying in civil government "Personal Rights" and also "Our Neighbor's Rights." In agriculture they have been learning how to bud and graft fruit trees.
The next history lesson in the fifth grade will be "Dutch Life." In geography they study the central states.
Hubert Smith had his collar bone broken on Thursday evening. He was in school on Friday was only an hour off while he went to the doctor's office.

The eighth grade is anxious that the freshmen preserve their equilibrium while promenading on the high school heights.

TURN'S ROMANCE ENDED.

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—Enver Pasha, the new Turkish minister of war, is well remembered in Berlin as the dashing young military attaché who plotted the Young Turk revolution, and secured its acceptance by Germany, while apparently he was nothing more than a brilliant leader of cotillion dances and organizer of amateur theatricals.

It was no secret that a young society woman in the German capital was deeply enamored of the fascinating Turk, and that a marriage would have taken place but for Enver's fatality Moslem patriotism. There was a heart-breaking farewell, and since then he has married a daughter of the sultan.

The Skin and Not the Blood.
Until recently it has been a generally accepted theory that eczema was a disease of the blood. Scientific investigations have taught us that eczema is positively a skin disease and curable through the skin alone. Meritol Eczema Remedy is applied directly to the diseased skin. Do not delay trying Meritol Eczema Remedy.

A Strong Indorsement.
W. H. Holmes of the Decorah, Ia., Journal, says: "I have been a sufferer from Piles and Hemorrhoids for years. I got no relief until my druggist recommended Meritol Pile Remedy. Before I had taken half the package the distress was gone and I have had no trouble since. I would not take a thousand dollars and be back in former condition."
